

GURUPPA NAVVA SPEAKS FROM HER 300 SQ FT ROOM

 TELANGANA

THE GOOD NEWS

The dream of a lifetime materialized for Navva's family, when the 23-year-old cleared her interview at Accenture in her first attempt. Navva's four-member family squeezes itself into a 300 sq ft room in Saroor Nagar, Telangana.

Beaming over her success, Navva claims, "All these years my father toiled for our sustenance and it is now my turn to shoulder responsibilities."

THE TAXI DRIVER

Her father who drove cabs for a living has been bed-ridden since March 2021 due to ill-health. "How could I ask him to fund my higher studies when his income was zero?" claims Navva being unable to get enrolled in a private institute due to finances.

Navva, who outshone her peers in academics since her school days says "Students from low-income families like us were always left behind due to lack of resources and information."

SEARCH

What moved her was a post from her friend who shared her story on social media about how she "became the first girl in her slum to get an offer-letter from a top MNC with the help ANUDIP's livelihood program."

On enquiring, Navva got introduced to ANUDIP's new-age digital training designed for students from opportunity-limited backgrounds to access careers which were otherwise untapped for such youth.

PROUD FATHER

"My journey to Accenture was never possible without help from Krishna Prasad Sir and, Hari Sir, my faculty at ANUDIP."

Navva rewrites her resume with her new designation as an, "Associate Technical Support at Accenture." and brings home 3x her family income. Her father wishes to recover soon and regain his occupation back.

"I drove many youngsters at corporate offices. Today I want to drive again - not for money but to drop my daughter at her office." - says Navva's Father .
